CRETE

A route with absolutely stunning views well worth the climbs. Starts off along the main road and first turn into the gravel is marked with red arrow. First climb is the most challenging and once it flats out you can enjoy the landscape. Just beneath the village Agiou Ioanni you'll start heading cross the valley and towards the sea again, but you have the opportunity to make a couple of minutes of extra climbing to have a stop at a café and refuel. Be awake when rolling down at the fast asphalt road getting close to the sea, the route leaves the road again to get you trough the last beautiful part of the valley.

DISTANCE: 21,5 km
